Press Note.

The Mysore House Rent and Accommodation Control Act, 1951, received the assent of the President on the 16th day of August 1951, and has been published as Mysore Act No. XXX of 1951 in the Mysore Gazette, dated 23rd August 1951. With effect from the date of coming into force of the Act, the Mysore House Rent and Accommodation Control Order, 1948, which was the law on the subject as ceased to be in force.

The several authorities contemplated under the Act are the High Court, the District Judge, the Controller and the Munsiff. Appeals against the orders of the Munsiff and the Controller will be heard by the District Judge having jurisdiction over the area. The orders of the District Judge are final subject to the revisional powers vested in the High Court under the Act.

Applications to evict tenants and those relating to withholding of amenities enjoyed by tenants have to be filed before the Munsiff's Court having jurisdiction.

Accommodation control, that is, allotment of houses and fixation of fair rents will be made by the Controller.

Appeal against the orders of the Controller in respect of eviction from Government buildings have to be made to Government.

Pending proceedings under the repealed House Rent and Accommodation Control Order will be heard by the appropriate authorities under the Act.
